

2019 Court Reporting & Captioning Week February 9-16

Top 10 things you can do to celebrate 2019 Court Reporting & Captioning Week

10. Read and be inspired by what members did during the 2018 Court Reporting & Captioning Week.
9. Send prewritten local media pitch and press releases to your local newspaper, radio station, and news station before, during, or after Court Reporting & Captioning Week. Templates can be found at NCRA.org/Awareness.
8. Share a complimentary copy of Making the Record: A Guide for Attorneys with all lawyers who you work with during Court Reporting & Captioning Week.
7. Share careers in court reporting information with others interested in the profession, or present at a local school.
6. Post frequently on social media during Court Reporting & Captioning Week about why you became a court reporter, your favorite court reporting gadget, what you like to tell non-reporters about the profession, the best advice you give court reporting students, your professional goal for 2019, etc.
5. For the Veteran's History Project, request a veteran's interview to transcribe... and earn 0.25 PDC per interview you transcribe (up to 4 interviews).
4. Share with parents and students the DiscoverSteno website when you explain court reporting as a great career.
3. Encourage a student to participate in NCRF's Oral Histories Program to earn a membership in NCRA for one year.
2. Show your court reporter pride by changing your Facebook profile picture, cover photo, and Twitter icon to the 2019 Court Reporting & Captioning Week logo from February 9-16.
1. Bask in the glory of being an NCRA member and a court reporter or captioner.