

Kansas Court Reporters Association Webinar
“Commas Here, Commas There, Commas Everywhere”
Margie Wakeman Wells

Name: _____

Email: _____

Organization: _____

Job Title: _____

Certified Court Reporter No.: _____

National Court Reporter Association No: _____

National Verbatim Reporter Association No: _____

Please answer the following questions after you’ve watched the webinar recording.

1. What is Margie’s favorite baseball team?
 Kansas City Royals
 Los Angeles Dodgers
 Boston Red Sox
2. Essential and non-essential apply to appositives, participles, and adjective clauses. Use commas to surround essential words in a sentence. Example: My son, Scott, came over last night for dinner.
 True
 False
3. Currently, it is suggested that the Oxford comma be used.
 True
 False
4. Spell out the word “okay”.
 True
 False
5. Use a pair of dashes to surround a complete sentence dropped into the middle of another complete sentence.
 True
 False
6. Margie recommends that the word “number” be written as “no.”
 True
 False
7. Margie grew up wanting to be a court reporter.
 True
 False

Email the completed form to Amy Raymond (raymonda@kscourts.org)